

Minds at work

FACULTY OF TECHNOLOGY

Foundation Degree in Construction (Construction Management)

Course overview

This Foundation Degree is designed for people who are employed in the construction industry in the field of Construction and Production Management.

However, other people employed in the fields of Building Surveying, Architecture and Quantity Surveying will benefit from the course. It is validated through Staffordshire University.

Entry requirements

The entry requirements are A Level, AVCE, BTEC National qualifications together with GCSE Maths and English at grades C or above. For mature students a significant portfolio of relevant work experience. It may be necessary to complete some balancing studies through the completion of the National Award.

Course length and mode of attendance

This is a three year part-time course. You will need to attend College one day a week with the possibility of one evening attendance.

What will I study?

Year 1 - Construction Technology A
Production Management

Year 2 - Construction Technology B
Construction Science and Materials

Year 3 - Building Law and Contract
Work Based Learning

What qualification will I obtain?

You will obtain a Foundation Degree in Construction (Construction Management).

How will I be assessed?

The course will be assessed through examinations, assignments and presentations.

Where will it lead?

Successful completion of the Foundation Degree in Construction provides a platform to complete a BSc (Hons) in your chosen field. It will also provide you with the opportunity to start the process of membership of one of the professional bodies for construction. The Foundation Degree will open up opportunities to work in a variety of construction disciplines.

How do I apply?

Through the application form in the College's Higher Education prospectus, for more information contact Terry Shenton on 01283 494624 or email terry.shenton@burton-college.ac.uk.

Cost of course

Price on application.

For more details on this course please call Student Services

01283 494474

