

Minds at work

FACULTY OF CREATIVE STUDIES

Foundation Degree in Complementary Therapies

Course overview

The Complementary Therapy profession has undergone rapid expansion and radical changes in the last 10 years. These changes have seen an increasing demand for higher level of education and training. The Foundation Degree in Complementary Therapies has been specifically designed to meet the demands of anyone wanting to work either freelance or in the NHS sector.

Entry requirements

You should have the following qualifications: NVQ level 3 Beauty Therapy or a Holistic Therapy Diploma. Alternatively, you may not have these qualifications but consideration will be given if you have a real desire to work in this Industry and have the ability to work at this level academically.

Course length and mode of attendance

Monday all day for 3 years, part-time.

What will I study?

Introduction to Complementary Therapies
Advanced Reflexology
Advanced Aromatherapy
Anatomy and Physiology for Complementary Therapists
Study Skills
Energy Health and Well-Being
Introduction to Professional Practice
Pathology and Biochemistry for Complementary Therapists
Therapy Practice Research

What qualification will I obtain?

Foundation Degree in Complementary Therapies
(Staffordshire University)

How will I be assessed?

Written reports, assignments, presentations, practical assessments, treatment logs and a personal development journal.

Where will it lead?

You can complete a final year of studies which will lead to a BA (Hons) in Complementary Therapies.

How do I apply?

Fill out an application form in the Higher Education prospectus, alternatively you can call Catherine Gadsby on 01283 494545 or email catherine.gadsby@burton-college.ac.uk for more information.

Cost of course

Approximately £800 per year

For more details on this course please call Student Services

01283 494474

